Goldy the Bison

Congratulations 2017 Award Winners

During the graduation ceremony, three coveted annual awards will be presented. The recipient of each award distinguished themselves academically and professionally and Apollos is proud to present them with their award during the upcoming graduation ceremony.

Famous Alumni 2017

Dr. Christopher Kiana, Sr. (DBA 2016)

Chris is a native American Eskimo who has called Alaska home all of his life. He is an distinguished author, educator, skilled sportsman, US Navy veteran, and advocate for Native Americans.

Distinguished Graduate 2017

Dr. Margaret Curlew

Margaret distinguished herself as a role model for her peers. While working fulltime and tending to the needs of her family, she attended Apollos fulltime and was able to complete her DBA with a 4.0 grade point average. Her research field is understanding small business in the service sector; why do the fail and what should they do to be successful.

Dissertation Excellence Award 2017

To be announced during the Graduation Ceremony.

Her background and knowledge will support the Registrar and Academic Scheduling departments. We are delighted Rebekah decided to become a member of the Apollos Family.

Please join us in welcoming both Melissa and Rebekah to Apollos.

Congratulations to Our Accreditor: DEAC

The National Advisory Committee on Institutional Quality and Integrity (NACIQI) voted unanimously to recommend DEAC receive another five years of recognition from the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education. This is consistent with the recommendation by the Department of Education staff that DEAC receive five years of recognition. According to the Department's final report on DEAC, no issues or problems were identified with the Petition for Recognition.
